Carlos-we are about to forward this response-do you want us to give her your media relations as a contact-this is a citizens group, but they issue press releases.

Ms. Fuja,

Regarding State Superfund sites, there are three active sites in Harris County. The TCEQ has assessed all three and no storm related issues were noted. Please reach out to EPA Region 6 should you have questions about Federal Superfund sites.

Subject: Superfund Sites Affected by Harvey

Hi Sherell,

This is Jordan Fuja from Environment Texas. I received your voicemail this morning, and I'm sorry I missed your call! Unfortunately, I'm not available to talk on the phone until 3:30. I can call you then, or if you are not able to talk then, we can correspond through email.

I wanted to reach out to ask about the superfund sites around the Houston area. Do you have any available information on which superfund sites were in flooded areas? Additionally, do you have any information on the integrity of the superfund sites after the flooding?

Again, if you'd rather talk about this over the phone, I am available to talk any time after 3:30 pm.

Thank you!
Jordan Fuja
